As I sit at my desk and hear the sounds coming from the classrooms, I hear a Center that is vibrant, happy, and alive. There is a level of comfort that even a first-time visitor notices. Staff members are pleasant and welcoming and the children are friendly, busy, and social. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of Small Wonders!

We have a few new staff and a few new routines, but our purposes and goals haven't changed since the dedication of the Center on May 1,

1992. We're dedicated to helping children grow and develop in all areas they can - social, cognitive, emotional, and physical. We recognize and value the individuality of each child, recognizing that growth and development can sometimes be an uneven process. Over the next few months we'll be sharing with you the ways the program/curriculum helps develop and support each child's growth in all these areas. So stay tuned...
